

BUSINESS PRODUCTS, INC.

Residential Wireless Internet Access

Cooke Business Products wireless broadband service brings high-speed Internet to your home without any extra phone lines! With speeds and service quality unmatched by cable or DSL Internet connections, Cooke Business Products is your local source for affordable, dependable, high-speed Internet access using wireless technology.

- No telco charges, no need to have additional phone lines installed
- Affordable, secure, high-speed Internet connection that's always on—no dialing up, no busy signals
- Low-latency service
- Personal technical support, 24/7 System Monitoring
- Three free cbpnet.net email accounts for your family
- Spam and virus filtering for cbpnet.net email accounts

Plan Comparison

Location	All locations 2.4GHz or 900MHz
Monthly Price	Single PC or router $63.50
Setup Price	$149 without router, $199 with router (Customer may provide own router)

Installation

Standard residential installation package includes:

- Outdoor antenna mounted on a vertical structure, chimney, or roof
- Cable routing through frame structure with a single wall penetration
- Testing of equipment operation
- Basic demonstration of system operation by a Cooke Business Products' technician

Materials provided at no charge:

- Cat5 cable
- RJ-45 connectors
- Antenna mounting hardware
- Grounding wire where required
- Weather Sealant for connections and structure penetration

Additional Information

- Wireless equipment is property of Cooke Business Products and must be returned upon account cancellation
- Users are subject to Cooke Business Products' Wireless Fair Usage Policy

SERVING EAST CENTRAL ILLINOIS AND WEST CENTRAL INDIANA